

The Lakeview Cheerleaders would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped make the Tennessee River Conference Hospitality Room a success. The hospitality room is given to thank and show appreciation for conference officials, referees, basketball coaches, cheerleading coaches and their immediate family members.

Special thanks go out to the Lakeview boys basketball parents, the Lakeview girls basketball parents, the Lakeview 8th grade parents and the Lakeview Cheerleading parents for all of the drinks and food brought in as well as all of their hard work in making the tournament such a success.

Local businesses and centers also being thanked for their generous donations are Issac Goodwin of Goodwings in Camden for generously donating food in honor of the Lakeview boys basketball team, John Reveles of Tequila Johns in New Johnsonville for donating wonderful foods on behalf of the Lakeview girls basketball team and Candace Brown of KFC/Taco Bell of Waverly for graciously donating in support of the Lakeview cheerleading squad. We would also like to thank the women of the senior citizens center in New Johnsonville for all of the amazing desserts and baked goods brought in as well as Lakeview's own faculty and staff members who also brought in drinks, foods and desserts in support of the tournament.

With the generous donations and support from parents, local businesses and community centers, as well as school faculty and staff, our hospitality room was a complete success. Thank each and every one of you, from the bottom of our hearts!
